in triumph.

When wanting choice baker's goods don't forget Gramling's bakery two doors north of the Gazette-News office.

The Gazette-News last week unintentionally gave credit to Quartermaster Lindsey for the fine feasts which were served to Company K during the state troops encampment, when it should have been Quartermaster Lindberg. Mr. Lindberg was not only vigilant and active in supplying the wants of the inner man to the entire satisfaction of all, but he saved a considerable amount over the sum usually expended for this purpose. The Gazette-News is pleased to announce that Mr. Lindberg is in line for promotion to regimental quartermaster at the next state encampment, with very good prospects of securing the position.

will take place next Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents in Kingston. The Gazette-News extends congratulations to the happy couple in advance in common with their legions of friends.

Clark's 5-cent composition books cannot be beaten for the money.

Edw. Fitzgerald is making very extensive improvements in his handsome residence adjoining the Gazette-News office, which will materially add to the comfort and convenience of his ideal abode. A bath room has been added, with hot and cold water, sewerage has been provided that empties into the river and other improvements made. Mr. Fitzgerald and his estimable wife expect to depart about the 28th inst. for DeLand, where he will become a law student in the Stetson University and Mrs. Fitzgerald will take a musical course.

LOCAL UNION No. 1088.
THOMAS WETHERELL, Pres.
GRANT MALOON, R. S.

Hon. N. B. Broward in Daytona.

Hon. Napoleon Bonaparte Brow-ard opened the Democratic campaign in this State by addressing the citizens of Daytona on the issues of the day at 10 a. m. Thursday. The hour selected for the speaking was the most inopportune time that could be chosen for the people of Daytona, but all efforts to change it proved ineffectual. Business men could not turn out, as on Thursday they have the day's business to transact in the forenoon on account of closing on that day for the afternoon, and mechanics and others could not leave their work. As a result the audience was small. But the speech of Mr.
Broward amply made up for the meagreness of the audience.

The meeting was called to order by Mayor Smith, who introduced the Hon. Mr. Newton, one of the presidential electors, as the first speaker.
Mr. Newton spoke entertainingly for about ten minutes.

Mr. Broward, the Democratic nominee for governor, was then introduced and for over an hour held the audience deeply interested by his masterly effort. Mr. Broward is a very pleasant talker, and, although his speech did not bear much on political questions, it was one that thoroughly pleased his hearers. His command of language is excellent, his delivery perfect, and it is to be regretted that more did not turn out to hear him. He announced that later on he would endeavor to visit Daytona again, when he would speak in the evening, and should he do so he will certainly be greeted by an overflowing house.

A telegram was read from Hon. R.
W. Davis, which stated that he was unable to be present owing to a slight indisposition. From here Mr.
Broward went to Titusville, where he spoke Thursday night.

Married in Connecticut.
Fred N. Conrad, the genial and popular cashier of the Merchants' Bank of Daytona, was married Monday, September 12, to Miss Kate O'Connor, of New Haven, Conn., a sister of Mrs. E. T. Conrad, of this city. The happy groom is one of Volusia county's most respected and esteemed citizens, while the bride is loved and honored by scores of Daytonians, to whom she is well known, having resided here for some time.

The Gazette-News joins the many friends of the happy couple in wishing them a long, joyous and prosperous life.

Riverview House Burned.
The Riverview House, owned by Mrs. Allen and located on the peninsula just north of the Central bridge, was destroyed by fire on Thursday evening. The fire was first observed about 8:15 p. m. in an upper story room on the west side, and is supposed to have been of incendiary origin, as no one had been occupying the premises for some time. No cause can be assigned for the deed if it was the act of an incendiary.
The value of the house and furniture destroyed is estimated at $4,000, and was insured with the Bingham & Thompson agency for $2,500.

The fire made an impressive and spectacular sight to Daytona behold-ers and many people went over to render assistance, but the flames had too much headway to be subdued and only died out when they had no material to consume.

Notice to Daytona Contractors.
The journeymen carpenters of local No. 1725 will ask for an eight-hour day from and after January 1, 1905.
